Step 7. Once in the Launchpad, click on the Google Classroom icon

Step 7. You may have to identify your role and continue

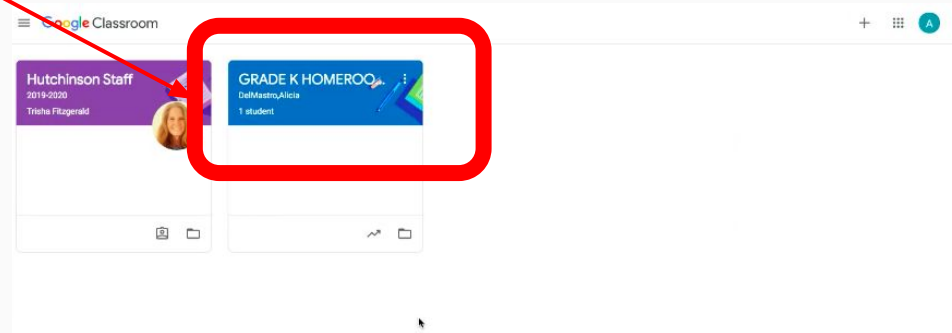

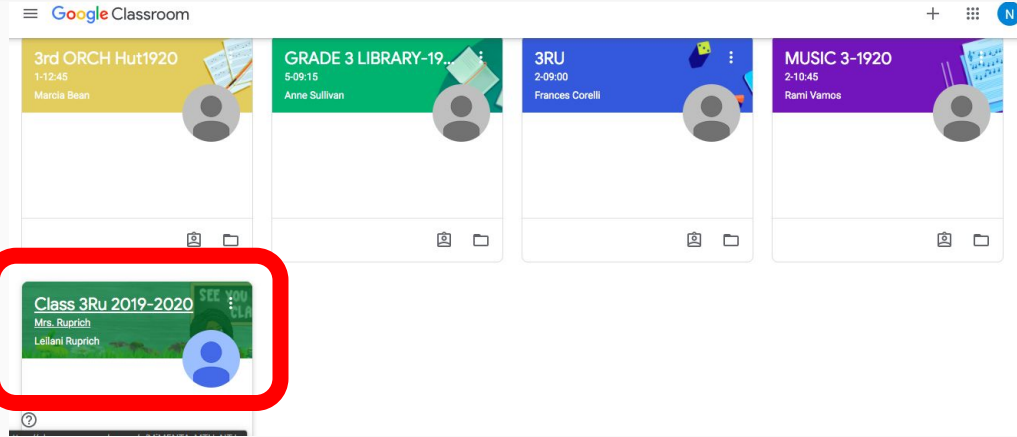

If the following screens come up when you sign in, you can click on the blue button to continue and select I'm a student.

\*These will not show up if your child has previously signed into their account***

Step 8. Go to your classroom teacher

You may see multiple classrooms on this screen for different classes such as Art, Music, PE, etc.

Your primary classroom teacher will be in an area that is identified by the Grade Level and you will see the teachers name in the description of the class

Step 9. Google Classroom Home Page

You can get to the Google Meet link by clicking on this link on Google Classroom.

Google Classroom Home Page Explained

The Stream is where you will see updates to your Google Classroom when teachers post assignments.

You can get your daily work by clicking on the Classwork section

Classwork

All assignments will be posted in the Classwork section of Google Classroom

The screenshot displays the Google Classroom interface. At the top, there are three tabs: "Stream", "Classwork", and "People". The "Classwork" tab is highlighted with a red rectangular box. Below the tabs, there are three links: "View your work", "Google Calendar", and "Class Drive folder". The main content area shows a post for "Day 11 - Wednesday, April 1st". This post is enclosed in a red rounded rectangular box. The post includes the text "Posted 6:28 PM", "Here is your lesson for today! Good luck!", and a Google Docs attachment titled "Chrome Studenttest - Gr...". Below the attachment is a "View assignment" link. To the right of the post, it says "No due date" and "Assigned". At the bottom of the interface, there is a "Google Meet Link" and a timestamp "Posted 2:24 PM".
